JAMES T. BRADY

Funeral services for James Thomas Brady 71, who had been residing in Elk City, Okla., were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel at 10 a.m. Thursday with the Rev. Robert Dehn of the First Baptist Church of Torrance officiating.

Mr. Brady, a longtime employe of Pacific Electric when that firm operated shops in Torrance, had recently moved to Oklahoma after living in Torrance for 33 years. He was visiting relatives here when he died Nov. 26. Before retiring, he worked as a carpenter for the Metropolitan Transit Co.

He is survived by his widow, Clara; two sons, John of Torrance and James of Washington; two stepsons, Roy Fulton of the U.S. Army and Alfred Fulton of Bellflower; and two stepdaughters, Mrs. Mary Conklin of Downey and Mrs. Rita Byas of Los Angeles. Five grandchildren also survive him.

Interment will be in Fairlawn Cemetery, Elk City, Okla.

Local Student Will Sing in 'The Trial'

Bass Richard Centola, of 3682 Redondo Beach Blvd., will sing the role of chief recorder in the contemporary opera, "The Trial," to be presented in English by the Opera Theater of the University of Southern California School of Music in Bovard auditorium at 8 p.m. on Dec. 7 and 8.

Written by Gottfried von Einem, Swedish-born Austrian composer, "The Trial" is based on a novel by Franz Kafka, published by the late Czechoslovakian novelist in 1919.

Centola is a native of Rochester, N. Y., and has appeared with the Verdi Opera Society in New York. He is studying voice at USC while taking his pre-dentistry courses at El Camino College.

DINNER PLANNED

The adult club of the Torrance Recreation Department will hold its annual Christmas Dinner Dec. 15, according to Fanny Tarpley.

ROBERT L. FOWLER

Funeral services for Robert Lee Fowler, 61, of 912 E. 220th St., were held at the Keystone Baptist Church Thursday afternoon with the Rev. V. L. Shore and George Leathers officiating. Mr. Fowler, a resident in Torrance for eight years, died Nov. 26 in Compton.

He is survived by his widow, Velma; two daughters, Ruth Maxine Smith and Mary Colleen Lanham; two brothers, Oder Marion Fowler of Missouri and Ellis Worth Fowler of Louisiana; and five sisters, Hazel Phillip, Allie Smith, Helen Brakefield, Annie Tinsley, and Bertie Greer, all living in Louisiana.

Interment was in Roosevelt Memorial Park under the direction of the Stone and Myers Mortuary.

MRS. GRACE RAMSEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Grace Mabel Ramsey, 87, who lived at 1743 Gramery Ave., were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Saturday morning with the Rev. Walter Stanton, pastor of the Central United Brethren Church of Torrance, officiating. Mrs. Ramsey, who had resided here 12 years, died Thursday in Claremont.

She is survived by two daughters, Phyllis Hoffman and Hazel Raymond, both of Torrance; a son, Dan K. Ramsey, Erie, Pa.; seven grandchildren, six great grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.
